

Daily Democrat.

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY

HARNEY, HUGHES & CO.

—OFFICE—

South Side Green Street, two doors below the Customhouse.

MONDAY, NOV. 7, 1864.

NOTICE TO CITY SUBSCRIBERS.

The Daily Democrat, delivered by carriers throughout the city, at the rate of twenty-five cents per week, including the Sunday paper.

Important Notice.

Owing to the increased expense of every article used in the printing business, and an advance price of twenty-five per cent, on the expense of composition, we are compelled to increase the cost of the Daily Democrat. Thereafter the Daily, by mail, will be one dollar per month, or six dollars for six months, or ten dollars per year, always in advance.

CITY NEWS.

The Officers of Election

Will confer a favor, and facilitate us in furnishing the result of the election, by promptly forwarding the returns at the close of the polls on Tuesday next.

We shall be under obligations for the favor, and will mail them a copy of the Democrat containing the result.

THE MEETING TO-NIGHT.

Let the Democracy Rally to the Call of their Country.

There will be a grand meeting of the Democracy, at the Courthouse, this (Monday) evening, at 7½ o'clock. A number of prominent speakers have been invited from different points, and several of them will be present and address the meeting. This will be the last grand rally previous to the great contest which occurs on Tuesday next. Let the Democracy turn out in their might, and let this be the largest meeting ever held in the city of Louisville and State of Kentucky. Again we say, rally, and let your voices go up with the cheering sounds for McClellan, Pendleton, and Victory.

JOB PRINTING.

The Job Department in the Democrat Office is ready for all kinds of printing. Bills, Circulars, Cards, Posters, &c., printed at the shortest possible notice, and at prices to suit the times.

The Election To-Morrow.

We are requested by Sheriff Root to say that the same officers who served in the August election are required to serve in the election to-morrow.

JOSEPH FRASER.—The article headed "Extraordinary Chapter from Old Abe's Life, &c.," published in yesterday's Democrat, got there without our knowledge or consent. It is a mean, contemptible, sneaking article, unworthy the columns of any respectable journal. While politically "Mass Abe" is fair game, the article is too coarse and vulgar and contemptuous in its reference to his family, to have found room in our paper had it come under the observation of the editors.

BOY SHOT.—Yesterday afternoon a lot of boys were playing ball in a lot in the rear of our office, when a boy named Pheiffer picked up a single barrelled shot-gun and fired at the fence. The load of shot passed through the fence and entered the head and neck of a little boy named Merriweather, who was innocently playing on the back yard attached to his mother's residence. His wound is not considered dangerous. Pheiffer succeeded in killing his target.

Amusements.—WOODS THEATER.—Masseywood was repeated to another brilliant assemblage, and Mad'le Zee, as Fennella, was rewarded with unanimous applause, and received the honor of a call before the curtain. As a dancuse she excels as in the character of an actress, and her Terpsichorean efforts are invariably rewarded with manifestations of enthusiasm from the audience. To-night the Flying Dutchman, in which she will essay the part of Vanderdecke. The piece will be placed on the stage in the usual style which characterizes this establishment. The fare of the Specter Bridgeman will terminate the performance.

LOUISVILLE THEATER.—Matilda Heron's new play, "The Mystery of the Temple of Paris," has had a very successful run the past week. The piece will be repeated to-night, with Miss Heron in the principal part.

MASSEY THEATER.—Prof. McAllister, will give another of their more enter-taining to-night, in the Masonic Temple. It is a great and wonderful magnet, and deserves a crowded house. We will afford the usual number of gifts to the audience.

LATEST FROM JOHNSONVILLE.—The LATE GUNBOAT FIGHT.—Troops moving to Johnsonville.—The Nashville Union of yesterday says: On Friday, November 4th, at daylight, the Undine (gunboat 55), which was captured a few days since by the rebels, came up through the chutes at Reynoldsburg Island, landed rebels, who fired her and left. At eight o'clock the gunboats Key West, Eliza, and Towal went down from Johnsonville and engaged a rebel battery of twenty pounders above Reynoldsburg Island west side. The gunboats were driven back to Johnsonville very much damaged. At two o'clock the enemy's batteries opposite, above and below Johnsonville, opened again upon the gunboats, to which they responded and continued fighting until the ammunition was nearly exhausted and the boats disabled, when, finding it impossible to hold out longer they were put to the torch. The crews are in the fort at Johnsonville.

CITY.—Yesterday was cool, wet, windy and rather disagreeable day. Being Sunday, the day was generally observed as such everywhere. In military circles everything was quiet. We did not hear any news of importance on the streets. The city was very quiet. No important arrests were made.

REGIMENT OF COLORED CAVALRY.—A regiment of colored cavalry arrived yesterday over the Louisville and Lexington railroad. They were splendidly equipped, and their horses were the finest we have seen in the service.

THE CONCERN.—The Concer held an inquest on the body of Little Dan Brady, who was killed by a locomotive at the foot of First street on Saturday. It was a sad accident, caused by carelessness.

DESERTERS IN IRONS.—Two deserters in irons were sent to Welling yesterday. Sent to Nashville, four to Indianapolis, four to Washington, and four to Baltimore.

MR. DAY.—The accommodating and gentlemanly clerk at Barracks No. 1, has our thanks for favors. The clerks in that office are all true types of Mr. Day.

See advertisement of farm for sale by George B. Kistner, in another column. It is said to be a very fine farm.

MR. EL. HODGE.—The clever mail agent, has our thanks for Nashville papers of yester day.

C. C. ROBINSON.—Company A, Third Kentucky cavalry, died at Atlanta, Sept. 16th.

J. GARDNER.—Dear Sir: I have been informed that you can have me induced to pay for a visit. No one can induce me to do it when after one operation, my hearing was suddenly, and without pain, restored to me, for which I feel very grateful. After being almost cut off from the pleasure of using my hearing, I have been compelled to learn to hear distinctly, a great credit to you for the skill you possess. I beg to thank you for what I can so truly appreciate.

Yours, respectfully,

Mr. T. LAWSON.

The Meeting at the Courthouse To-Night.

To-night there will be a grand rallying of the Democracy of the city at the Courthouse. As this will be the last meeting during the present Presidential campaign, we hope that it will be the largest ever held in our city, and that the fire of patriotism will burn brighter than ever. Freemen, rally to the rescue and nerve yourselves for the great conflict which takes place on Tuesday next. The destiny of the country is in your hands and if you falter it may be lost forever. Let nothing deter you from performing your duty, and you will have the great gratification of knowing that you contributed your mite towards the restoration of the Union and the perpetuation of civil and religious liberty.

A large number of persons will be present to-night and address the meeting, among whom are W. J. Heady, W. F. Bullock, and others who we well know. Let the Democracy rally to the call of their country and let this be the great meeting of the campaign.

Pork Packing around the Falls.

This being about the season for the hog trade to open, we have taken the pains to make some inquiries in regard to the prospects of the hog packing around the falls the present season. The only packing that will be done in Louisville this season, herefore, is one of the greatest packing points in the West, will be done by the packers of the Government. A contract has been closed with Robert Floyd and Smith Speed to pack here one hundred thousand head of hogs, but at what figures the contract was made we were unable to learn. The packing is distributed among the following houses, as follows: Wm. Jarvis & Co., 50,000; Orsney & Co., 20,000, and Hamilton & Bro's., 30,000. In addition to this, we learn that the Government has contracted with Ricketts & Co., of Jeffersonville, for the packing of 15,000 head, and with parties in New Albany for 10,000 head.

We shall be under obligations for the favor, and will mail them a copy of the Democrat containing the result.
